

"A truly thriving Catholic community confidently and humbly proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ."

This is Holy Week — Hinge of the Year

Over the last weeks we have been following Pope Francis in the teaching that he has been giving each week at the Papal Audiences, but this week; the most sacred and important week for the Church, we will take a break from the important theme of evangelisation. When we return to this subject we shall be following Pope Francis' sequence again, looking at St Paul, one of the first evangelists.

At the time of writing this, Pope Francis is in hospital with a respiratory infection, and we hold him in prayer for a speedy recovery.

This is Holy Week, and we walk with Jesus through the week. In the Gospel accounts of what took place in the first days of this week, St John tells us very little (John 12:20-50). On the other hand the 'synoptic' Gospels record some of the greatest teaching of Jesus as being during this time. Matthew (Matthew 21:12 – 26:16), Mark (Mark 11:12 – 14:11) and Luke (Luke 19:41 – 22:6) all offer much fuller accounts of what took place after the triumphal entry of Jesus on Palm Sunday until the beginning of the Last Supper on Thursday evening.

The three Gospel accounts, Matthew, Mark and Luke are called 'synoptic' (meaning 'through the same eye') because their accounts are similar — in many cases word-for-word identical. John, writing many years later tells the story in a more reflective way.

In the narrative that takes us through the first part of Holy Week in the synoptic Gospels, we find that mostly we are hearing the same events recorded in each Gospel, although there are small differences. Matthew is the fullest account, and during these three days, those chapters would make sensible reading.

The Temple is cleansed

OUR

VISION

When we read of the 'Temple', we need to remember that we are 'temples of the Holy Spirit' (1 Corinthians 6:19), and that Holy Week is a good time for us to let Jesus cleanse us through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. There is specific opportunity in the Penitential Liturgies on Monday and Tuesday evenings (Monday at the Cathedral, Tuesday at St Gregory's, both at 7.00 pm).

The Fig Tree is cursed

The fig tree which is bearing no fruit is cursed. While Jesus uses this story to emphasise the power of prayer, we should remember that we are called upon to bear fruit. (see Galatians 5:22-26) In preparing ourselves for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we might well ask ourselves if we are bearing the right sort of fruit.

Jesus' authority is questioned

The next part of the account is taken up with the chief priests, the Pharisees and the Sadducees questioning Jesus. Moses told the people of Israel that on the 10^{th} of the month (Nisan) they were to choose a lamb without blemish, and on 14^{th} it was to be sacrificed. This was the first Passover. (Exodus 12:1-6) What is happening in this part of the narrative is that Jesus is being checked over by the priests, by the Pharisees and by the Sadducees to see if they can find fault with him, just as in the Temple the lambs for the Passover sacrifice were being checked out to make sure that there was nothing wrong with them. They cannot get the better of Jesus in their questioning; he is without blemish.

Three parables

The parables of the two sons, the wicked tenants and the wedding banquet each have a related message: that the son who actually does the will of the Father is preferred of the son who says he will but doesn't, that the tenant who fails to fulfil the requirements of his tenancy in the end will have to pay the price of his failure and that the people who reject their invitation to the Son's wedding-feast do not get a second chance. All three are aimed at those who have responsibility in the established religion of Judaism at the time.

Four questions

The Pharisees and the Sadducees continue to check Jesus with questions about paying taxes, about the resurrection, about the greatest commandment and finally about the Messiah. Jesus passes all these tests, such that "no one dare ask him any more questions" (Matthew 22:46) He is indeed the lamb without blemish; the Lamb of God.

Jesus speaks to the crowds

Those who were inspecting Jesus go away, and Jesus then speaks to the crowds of ordinary people; he speaks to us, and the instruction given in chapter 23 is good for us all to read, particularly as we prepare ourselves for the Sacrament of Reconciliation before Easter.

Jesus speaks to his Disciples

Leaving the Temple, Jesus goes to the Mount of Olives with his disciples, and he warns them that the road ahead will be rough. This is followed by a passage about the end of the world, and warning us to beware of false prophets (Matthew 24:24-28) saying that the end is come or is near. We are warned to be watchful and ready all the time, because it will come at an unexpected hour. (Matthew 24:44)

Three more parables

The three parables of chapter 25 are addressed to disciples, and the first, that of the ten bridesmaids re-iterates the call to be ready. We do not know when the bridegroom (Jesus) will come again, but we must be ready. We can put off the moment when we seek forgiveness and reconciliation, but there is a risk that we might end up like the foolish bridesmaids. We are warned! In the parable of the talents we are encouraged to make use of the gifts we are given in the service of the Kingdom of Heaven. There are many talents which can be used in the service of the Church; talents which enhance our worship, talents which maintain our buildings, talents which help in evangelisation and the proclamation of the Gospel and others which support the life of the Church in many ways. However, the third of the parables makes us open our arms much wider and recognise that talents must be used for the needy in so many ways, the needs of the hungry and thirsty, of the homeless and the destitute, the needs of the sick, the needs of the migrant and the needs of the prisoner. The Kingdom of Heaven is wider than the Church!

The parable of the judgement of the nations concludes this part of the Gospel, and leads us to the preparation for the Last Supper and so takes us to Maundy Thursday and into what the Church calls the "Triduum"; the 'Three Holy Days' of Thursday, Friday and Saturday which end with the celebration of the Resurrection of the Lord at Easter.

The Ministry of Welcome

It is important that everyone is welcome in the Church, and that everyone knows that they are welcome. Some have no worries about Covid, and take no precautions against catching it. Others are still cautious, some because of their own health, in particular those with medical conditions which would make them vulnerable, others because they are carers for a vulnerable person.

The Church is planning to re-introduce the option of receiving the Precious Blood of Jesus at Mass on Holy Thursday (Maundy Thursday) for the Mass of the Lord's Supper; there will be more information on this in due course. Holy Water should be back at Easter. The Sign of Peace will follow soon. However, there are still many who are sick; not just with Covid, but also with 'flu and other seasonal maladies.

The most important piece of advice is that if you feel unwell, please do not share your misfortune, but as far as you can, remain at home and do not pass on your infection, whatever it may be. Please remember that if you are ill or caring for an infant or someone who is ill, there is no obligation to do what is impossible! Please pray for all who are suffering in bad health.

Scripture Readings 5th April 2020, Palm/Passion Sunday Year A

In exile in Babylon, after Jerusalem was destroyed in 597 BC, the despairing people are tempted to give up their faith in God. In the 'servant-song' Isaiah offers consolation, recommending trust in the Lord.

Today Isaiah's words express both our horror at the way Our Lord was treated, and our admiration for his example of patient nonretaliation. Trusting confidently in his Father, he "sets his face like flint", even though it is covered with spittle.

On the Cross Jesus uttered the first words of this psalm which reflects his suffering. Not a cry of despair, but expressing Jesus' complete confidence in his Father and praising the redemption bought by his Cross.

The hymn in Philippians rejoices: unlike Adam, Jesus did not seek to be equal to God. But God raised him to glory and gave him the name 'Lord'. Jesus on the Cross invites us to imitate his humility.

Matthew's Passion, with its lively dialogue, shows Jesus aware and in control. Writing after the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70, Matthew blamed the Jewish leaders for Jesus' death. Jesus died just before Passover, when Jews celebrated their freedom from slavery. Soldiers, Jewish leaders, the inscription on the Cross, all ironically give Jesus his true title of 'King of the Jews', the Messiah. Jesus' obedience to God's plan gives the Cross meaning.

Psalm Response:

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

(Isaiah 50:4-7; Psalm 21(22); Philippians 2:6-11; Matthew 26:14 -27:66)

Alpha began on March 14th 2023

The third session asks the question: "Why did Jesus have to die?" Could God not have just forgiven us and made it all right? A simple answer is that yes, God could. The problem is that it was humans, not God who crucified Jesus. Since the earliest days of mankind there has been sin in the world, and to a greater or lesser extent, we are all sharers in that sin, whether in thought, word or deed. The crucifixion of Jesus brings the magnitude of that sin into sharp focus. A mere "That's OK" would have been totally inadequate for the seriousness of human sin. But such is the love of God that he gave his own son, an innocent victim, to pay the ultimate price. Just as "That's OK" is inadequate, God's love in Jesus requires more from us.

Is there more to life than this?
Who is Jesus?
Why did Jesus die?
How can I have faith?
Why and how do I pray?
Why and how should I read the Bible?
How does God guide us?
Who is the Holy Spirit?
How can I resist evil?
Why and how should I tell others?
Does God heal today?
What about the Church?

UPDATE FOR CORONATION BIG LUNCH Bank Holiday Monday 8th May 12 noon. We hope everyone is getting on board with their crown making! Don't forget adults are included and we can't wait to see how creative you are! We are expecting some outrageous designs.

Our aim for this event is to bring people together as a community for a fun afternoon at little or no cost to individuals or the environment, with this in mind we would like to have a parade of 'crowns' made from only recycled materials (for both adults and children).

Passover Meal

Only a few places left! We have the opportunity

Meal in a Christian context, and interpreted for us so that we can understand the significance of the particular symbols of the Jewish Seder Meal and through it, better understand the liturgy of Maundy Thursday, the Mass of the Lord's Supper

This will be on Wednesday in Holy Week, 5th April, starting at 6.45 pm.

There is a charge for adults of $\pounds 12$; children are free.

Tickets available now. please see Rayner Willnecker.

Penitential Liturgies

As is usual before Easter and Christmas, there will be penitential liturgies; at the Cathedral on Monday evening in Holy Week and here at St Gregory's on Tuesday in Holy Week; both starting at 7.00 pm. Please make use of this.

Easter Flowers

Donations for Easter flowers can be made using the envelopes which are in the narthex. Please bring them to the Sacristy; names of those in whose memory flowers are given will be in the newsletter for Easter Dav

Any helpers available on Holy Saturday would be most welcome. (10.00 am – midday)

Parents or Carers and Children — Maundy Thursday and Good Friday

There will be activities for parents / carers and children on Maundy Thursday morning and Good Friday morning, from 10.00 am until 12 noon, led by Helen Furniss. The evening Mass of the Lord's Supper and the watch is probably too late for very young children, and the Good Friday liturgy at 3.00 pm is not easy for them.

However, they are important days for us, and the activities in the mornings will help children to understand what these days commemorate, and what Easter eggs symbolise so that Easter is not just a chocolate-fest, but really celebrates the new life that Jesus gives us through his resurrection from the dead.
